"The Globe Trotter"

World Rights Lee-Bradford Corporation

1.

High among the hills of Westchester County, New York, Squirrels - hundreds of them, from all parts of the world - form a big, happy colony.

2. Red Squirrel Farm, the rambling home of the Squirrelville Movie Actors. Here they find atmosphere, freedom and scenic beauty.

3. The Gray Trio - Pa, Ma and Little Jimmie, in their daily skit entitled "Don't We have Fun.?"

The "branch" library.

5. One of the Squirrelville Beauties.
And some vampire, too!

6. A Squirrel "Daily Dozen."

7. A Sawdust complexion-bath.
This squirrel's idea of luxury.

8. Catnip may be the cat's cuffs but sawdust is the squirrel's pajamas.

9. Meg, an American Gray Squirrel, lunching on caterpillar eggs.
They're not 80 cents a dozen.

10. The giant of the whole "show."
Roumia, an Indian Squirrel.

11. Too heavy to sit on her haunches like the other squirrels.

12. Cherry into a squirrel.

13. Corn on the cob!

14. This, you straphangers!

15. An original idea with Roumia but you may copy it.

16. Notice the remarkable sense of balance, despite the size.

16. A genius at pleading.
Did you ever see a squirrel with such taking ways?
17. In a hand, but enjoying a hand-out.
18. Meet Sani, the Straits of Malacca Squirrel.
She's so fond of sweet potatoes they call her "Sweet Patootie."
19. Wherein a young Movie Star takes her first drink.
20. You've gotta be careful about drinking, these days, so she takes hers through a test-tube.
21. The original hoarder.
The squirrel always has sense enough to save up for a "rainy day."
22. This one evidently thinks we're in for a long spell of wet weather.
23. Saturday night in Squirrelville.
Talk about a thorough bath!
24. Darned if it doesn't look like Clean-Up Week!
A regular movie banquet.
25. Do they prefer sunflower seeds to roast suckling pigs?
Watch their tails wig-wag the answer!
27. The Four Musketeers. How's that for a military formation?
